

Dr. Marina Carvalho
GRP and Trade Lead
Inter-American Coalition for Regulatory Convergence, Medical Technology Sector

Marina is a corporate and policy professional with 18+ years of experience in international trade in advocacy and strategic consulting on issues related to international trade, corporate matters and intellectual property, foreign direct investment, trade remedies and market access.

She served as CEO of the Brazilian Sporting Goods Industry Association (APICE) between 2014 and 2019, working with senior executives, representing and redesigning the institutional positioning of the sporting goods sector in Brazil and engaging on foreign trade, trade remedies, customs and regulatory law. She is a top-ranked international trade lawyer and has consulted for international organizations since 2018. She is an international trade consultant at the United Nations Development Program (UNDP), a researcher at the Brazilian Institute for Applied Economic Research (Ipea) and worked as a senior investment consultant for the World Bank. She is the Director of the NGO Women Inside Trade and WITcast producer and editor. She also participated in the training program at the Brazilian Diplomatic Mission in Geneva, in 2008.

Marina holds a PhD in International Law from the Pontifical Catholic University of São Paulo (PUC/SP - 2014) and earned her Master's in International Relations Law at the same institution in 2007. She graduated in Law at Pontifical Catholic University of Paraná, Curitiba (PUC/PR - 2004). In 2006 she concluded an LLM in International Trade Law at the University of East Anglia in Norwich, England and holds a Specialization in Dispute Resolution and Investments from the University of Buenos Aires, Argentina (2005).